

FALL RETREAT

Piedmont Friends Fellowship -- your connection to FCC

RE-ENVISIONING OUR SYSTEM OF JUSTICE THROUGH MATTHEW 18

Join Friends for a morning of thoughtful discourse, discussion and fellowship as we consider our criminal justice system and explore a Friendly way of meeting the accused with compassion and forgiveness.

SCOTT HOLMES PRESENTER

Scott Holmes is a lawyer with the firm of Brock, Payne & Meece in Durham, N.C. He also serves as an assistant clinical professor of law and director of the Civil Litigation Clinic at the NC Central University School of Law and adjunct professor of restorative justice in the Department of Justice and Policy Studies at Guilford College.

He has worked as a public defender in Durham, and with the local non-profit Community Reinvestment Association of North Carolina.

Scott has been a Quaker representative to the United Nations Commission for Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice, delivering several speeches to that body in Vienna.

Scott is an active member of Durham Friends Meeting, and carries a concern for plain dress.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 2013 DAVIDSON FRIENDS MEETING

9:00 a.m. Gathering, coffee
& registration

9:30 - 12:00 Program

12:00 Fellowship
Lunch provided

1:00 Depart

625 South Street,
Davidson NC

Parking at adjacent elementary school

Registration on site
$10; $5 for students

Lunch included with fee

RSVP appreciated for planning, but Friends are welcome to come as the spirit moves them!

Email Barbara Gardiner
barbara.k.gardiner@gmail.
com

with RSVP & questions about child care, hospitality or lunch