

MINUTES PREPARED BY MEETINGS AND WORSHIP GROUPS REGARDING AFFILIATION WITH PIEDMONT FRIENDS YEARLY MEETING

Chapel Hill Friends Meeting

At its second month, 2015 Monthly Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business, the Chapel Hill Friends united behind a recommendation from its Ministry and Worship Committee that we join Piedmont Friends Yearly Meeting

Tom Munk, Presiding Clerk

Charlotte Friends Meeting

Charlotte Friends Meeting is in unity with the Vision and Core Elements statements proposed to guide Piedmont Friends Yearly Meeting. We intend to affiliate with Piedmont Friends Yearly Meeting, and will appoint up to three representatives from our meeting in time for the September convening of the new yearly meeting representative body.
(6th Month, 1st day, 2014)

Julie Stafford, Presiding Clerk

Fancy Gap Friends Meeting

At the monthly meeting of Fancy Gap Friends Meeting on the 6th month 1st Day, 2014, Friends approved with clear hearts and minds to join in fellowship with Piedmont Friends Yearly Meeting upon its formation.

We look forward to our participation with a great deal of hope and excitement. Thank you and all of PFF for the work that has been done to accomplish this monumental task.

R. Kenneth Bradstock, Presiding Clerk

New Garden Friends Meeting

On Ninth Month, Seventh Day, 2014 at a regular Monthly Meeting for Worship and Business, New Garden Friends Meeting approved membership in Piedmont Friends Yearly Meeting.

Mary Louise Smith, Presiding Clerk

Raleigh Friends Meeting

The Raleigh Monthly Meeting of Friends joyfully accepts the invitation to join other Meetings and Worship Groups in the formation of the Piedmont Friends Yearly Meeting. Raleigh Friends have read and discussed the proposed vision statement and core elements of the Piedmont Friends Yearly Meeting and find resonance with its stated purpose. We have been blessed to be part of the yearly meeting formation process and express our appreciation to those who have brought the process to this point. We look forward to participation in this new endeavor.
Sixth Month, the 15th, 2014

Gini Emigh and Roberta Farwell, Presiding Co-clerks

Salem Creek Friends Meeting

Salem Creek Monthly Meeting at its Meeting for Business on 8 June 2014, seeking to promote unity among Friends in North Carolina and embracing the diversity of Friends Meetings in our region, recognizing the value of membership in a larger Quaker body, and finding ourselves in spiritual alignment with the new Piedmont Friends Yearly Meeting agreed to join PFYM and appoint representatives to the YM in time for the organizational September meeting. These representatives will be identified and approved at the July business meeting. Sixth month, 8th, 2014

John Cardarelli, Presiding Clerk

Upstate Friends Worship Group (under the care of Charlotte Friends Meeting)

Upstate Friends stood in unity on formally becoming a member meeting of Piedmont Friends Fellowship and Yearly Meeting affirming our belief that there will be both substantive and spiritual value in said yearly meeting affiliation and a mutual benefit for PFFYM. All in attendance were in unity.

From meeting for business held on 1st day, July 29, 2014

Doris Wilson, Presiding Clerk
